Chapter 1 by Dead DJ

She was drowning in her tears, Her mother had called her 'skank', now she held her blankets and her swollen belly close.

"Open the door!" Her mother screamed, banging madly on the door.

She cried harder, she had locked her door so her mother didn't barge herself onto her daughters room.

"Who is the father!" She screamed again.

The girl threw the blanket over her head and covered her ears as she remembered her mother's reaction when she first told her.

Her mother's voice faded out in the background of the memory.

Chapter 2 by ( (N) )

As she was crying, her whole room turned black. Nothing can be recognized from now on.

Eternal darkness. There was just her, blanket and her swollen belly.

A spirit appeared in front of her.

"Why are you crying?" spirit asked.

She put away her blanket. It seems like the spirit has taken a shape of the girl. (not the main character, but still)

Only main character for now, I'll add more later.

Do you want to be gone?

"I don't know anymore. Everything is so screwed up! I DON'T WANT THIS LIFE!!!" she started crying louder.

"Come, come. Don't talk like that. Your mom loves you, even with this baby, she's just really mad that you did a wrong thing. Everyone makes mistakes. I'm wondering here for years because i couldn't learn from my own mistakes, but i can help other people in learning their mistakes and moving on."

"That's the whole point. I've been making mistakes since when i was born. You're wrong about my mom loving me. She doesn't like me at all. She just wants a perfect daughter to help her around the house, and not annoy her."

"I can help you." spirit responded, "Can you trust me?"
